Dear Sir or Madam,

Concerning the world-wide epidemic escalation of Covid-19 virus (Corona virus), we would like to inform you about the current situation at STOCKO:

From today's point of view, production and deliveries are safe.

Nevertheless due to the widening of risk areas a limitation or negative impact cannot be excluded.

Possible changes of the situation are reassessed by our teams to identify negative effects in the supply chain and to keep potential risks for our customers and business partners as low as possible.

In case of specific questions please contact directly your STOCKO Key Account.

With kind regards
